

Antoine Gerschel

Managing Partner

Antoine Gerschel has 15+ years of experience developing award-winning programs improving business communication and leadership within global, multi-cultural settings. An extraordinary executive coach and trainer of leaders, Mr. Gerschel approaches human problems with a powerful mix of business perspective and sensitivity to human factors.

Antoine has lived strategy implementation challenges and change management approaches in many shapes and forms. He has firsthand experience as an entrepreneur and corporate leader in the U.S., Europe and Japan.

Prior to co-founding PeopleNRG, Antoine was the head of Global eLearning and Leadership Education at Aventis, a $20B pharmaceutical company, headquartered in France. He successfully designed and implemented best of class executive education programs in collaboration with Wharton, INSEAD and other leading institutions in the U.S. and Europe. At the same time, he led the Aventis Learning Platform, established to serve 70,000 global employees. Earlier, Antoine co-founded a company dedicated to creating eLearning programs covering team, communication and leadership topics. After 10 years of steady growth, the business was sold to a major publisher. Antoine then became the EVP of consulting, product development and technology at Blessing White, a leading strategic HR consultancy, based in Princeton, New Jersey.

Antoine is a Managing Partner at PeopleNRG, a leadership & team consulting firm in Princeton, New Jersey and co-author of the bestselling book Perfect Phrases for Communicating Change (McGraw-Hill) and Perfect Phrases for Conflict Resolution (McGraw-Hill). He is originally from Switzerland and has the equivalent of a BA in Economics and a MBA from the St. Gall Graduate School of Business, Economics, Law and Public Administration (the highest rated business school in German-speaking Europe). Antoine lives with his family in Princeton, New Jersey. He is fluent in English, French, German and Spanish and has basic knowledge of a number of other languages.
